

STEP III, 2006, Q6 EC

- 6 The lack of structure in this question meant that there were again varied approaches. The solution required some degree of confidence at interrelating elementary geometry with calculus in the less familiar context of polar coordinates. Note that the question requires a solution which starts with a geometrical property and finishes with a parabola, and not the other way.

NextStepMaths.com

To view mark schemes, fully worked solutions and examiner's comments, and for more details about tutoring and other services offered, go to NextStepMaths.com